

Customers with disabilities

Access for disabled customers, including a sloped entrance, is provided at the Visa Application Centre in Communications House. Any applicant who feels that they may need assistance should contact the visa application centre prior to submitting their application.